5. How to Submit a Request for Access to Records

Prescribed Form

Requests for access to records held by Touch Domain must be made using Form 2 (Request for Access to Record), available on the Information Regulator's website or upon request from our Information Officer.

Submission

Send the completed Form 2 to our Information Officer via email at tmtsweni@touchdomain.co.za.

Sufficient Detail

The request must provide sufficient detail to enable the Information Officer to identify:

- The specific record(s) requested.
- The identity and contact details of the requester.
- The right the requester seeks to exercise or protect.

Outcome & Prescribed Fees

- Requesters seeking their own personal information are exempt from paying a request fee.
- For third-party requests, a prescribed request fee is payable before processing begins. Search, reproduction, and delivery fees apply as prescribed under PAIA Regulations.
- The Information Officer will notify the requester of the decision and applicable fees using prescribed Form 3 within 30 calendar days of receipt.

6. Grounds for Refusal of Access

Touch Domain may lawfully refuse a request for access to records under mandatory provisions of PAIA, including where disclosure would:

- Unreasonably reveal personal information about a third party (data subject).
- Violate commercial confidentiality or trade secrets of a third party or Touch Domain.
- Breach professional privilege or contractual obligations of confidentiality.
- Threaten the safety of individuals, property, or digital infrastructure.

7. Personal Information Processing (POPIA Integration)

In terms of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA), Touch Domain processes personal information as follows:

- Purpose of Processing: To render digital services, generate quotes, fulfill reseller hosting orders, maintain accounting records, send billing communications, and comply with legal tax obligations.
- Categories of Data Subjects: Clients, prospective clients, website visitors, vendors, and service providers.
- Categories of Personal Information: Names, business names, contact details (email, phone, address), IP addresses, payment transaction histories, and project specifications.
- Recipients of Personal Information: Information is disclosed only to authorized employees, technical subcontractors (e.g., hosting providers), and professional advisors operating under strict confidentiality obligations.
- Cross-Border Data Transfers: Web hosting and cloud database servers operated by our third-party infrastructure partners may store or route data internationally. We ensure these providers uphold data security standards compatible with POPIA.

- Data Security Measures: Touch Domain employs appropriate technical and organizational measures to safeguard personal information, including encrypted SSL web connections, strict credential management, multi-factor authentication, regular system updates, and restricted operational access.
